ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

CITIZEN STATUS FOR INDONESIAN PASSPORT HOLDER

An Indonesian cannot hold both Indonesian and British/foreign passports at the same time as Indonesia does not recognize dual nationality. If he/she applies and being granted a British/other foreign citizenship, then he/she will lose his/her Indonesian nationality. In this case he/she must surrender his/her Indonesian passport to the Embassy, as it remains the property of the Republic of Indonesia. However, this will in no way restrict the couple from travelling to and from Indonesia or the United Kingdom, provided they have the necessary visas.
